

"When tragedy struck our family, God was the only One who got us through," Pam said. "My prayer is that through our story and music, others will be motivated to walk with God everyday, no matter what life brings." Pastor Mark Young has hosted several of the Morgan's concerts. "Phil has an amazing gift of writing their personal journey of faith into music that relates to everyone," he said. "His lyrics speak truth and offer hope in a way that is truly impressive."

Announcements

- Today we welcome Phil and Pam Morgan to Immanuel. Enjoy their music and story that will touch your heart. After the concert, all are invited for cookies, coffee and lemonade in the Fellowship Hall.
- Julie Berneman's younger elementary Sunday school class will not meet today.
- Next Sunday, Dec. 3, Pastor Dave will be back in the pulpit at Immanuel, and communion will be observed. We will have a potluck to give everyone a chance to visit with Pastor Dave and Karen.
- The food pantry is getting somewhat depleted after a lot of deliveries in November. Our church is responsible for donations of vegetable oil, laundry soap, and toilet paper. Any other items, including cash donations, are also welcome, of course. Place items for donation in the shopping cart in fellowship hall. Envelopes with cash donations can be placed in my mailbox. Thanks for your help with this very worthy project. Wanda
